Now you can own the second five years of The Magic Menu, the world's only journal specifically for the walk-around magic specialties, in one volume. Whether you perform close-up magic in restaurants, bars, hospitality suites, corporate events, cocktail parties or other strolling venues, you'll find a wealth of advice and real-world effects from professionals who make their livings in these same venues.

Throughout this huge volume, performers like Michael Close, Kirk Charles, Jay Sankey, Simon Lovell, David Acer, Gregory Wilson, David Harkey and many, many others share their experience and magical ideas and, in the process, help equip you to be a better performer. There's performance advice: how to approach a table or group, how to develop your performing character, how to select an appropriate venue for your style of magic, and lots more. There's business advice: how to deal with your competition, how to get an interview, how to set fees, and even how to deal with taxes.

And, then there are the tricks—all strong effects that have been tested and proved in the white-hot fire of actual performing conditions. You'll find effects with sponge balls, coffee creamers, matches, rope, soda straws, napkins, business cards, rubber bands, finger rings, laser pointers, credit cards and lots more, including a wealth of commercial card and coin material.

Combine all of this with The Magic Menu's excellent columns on such diverse subjects as walk-around mentalism, opening lines and even balloon sculpting, and you have one of the most complete resources for the walk-around magician ever assembled. Hardcover, 400 pages, full-color dust jacket. $45.00

The Magic Menu is not just for the restaurant performer. Any close-up worker will find a menu of ideas to whet his palette and sink his teeth into.
— Gregory Wilson

A Revealing Look Into The Past, Present and Future of Magic

JOHN BOOTH'S Extending Magic Beyond Credibility

"To understand the artistic, historical and cultural evolution of our art in all its multiple facets over the last sixty years, we cannot ignore Booth..." — Silvan

Mark Wilson once wrote of John Booth: "Few individuals throughout history have been able to combine so many achievements in one lifetime." And, now, John Booth, in Extending Magic Beyond Credibility, his thirteenth (and possibly best) book on magic, looks back on his more than 70 years of experience with the conjuring arts and considers some of its most enduring mysteries, intriguing questions and fascinating personalities.

From legendary effects such as Robert-Houdin's Light & Heavy Chest and the Indian Rope Trick to the origins of dove magic, ventriloquism and automata, Extending Magic Beyond Credibility has the famous Booth blend of secrets, biography, philosophy and romantic history.

Did Houdini really own a mansion in Hollywood? Why was Dai Vernon disinterested in fame and fortune? And, what musical instrument enchanted Max Malini? Booth provides answers to these questions and others, while also stressing cutting-edge miracles from contemporary stars such as Sylvester the Jester and Kevin James.

Whether you're a student of magic history or simply one fascinated with the art and its many facets, you'll find Extending Magic Beyond Credibility is more than just a book of magic history. It's a captivating read you'll find difficult to put down, written by a man who not only knows his subject...but who lived it as well

Hard bound, cloth clover with gold foil stamping on spine and cover. 272 acid-free pages and a striking full-color dust jacket. $39.95

The Annotated Magic of SLYDINI

Long unavailable, Lewis Ganson's The Magic of Slydini is, perhaps, one of the most influential magic books ever. Many of its routines have now become classics in magic, including Flight of the Paper Balls, Helicopter Card, Coins Through The Table, Slydini's Knotted Silks, The Paper Balls in the Hat and others. In many ways, these routines have all become standard phrases in the language of magic...and they all started with this book. In this brand new edition, Slydini has some additional things to say about his creations. Some time ago, Dr. Gene Matsuura went through the text of Ganson's book with Tony Slydini and took careful notes as Slydini made valuable additions and observations based on his experience with the material after the book's initial publication. The Annotated Magic of Slydini presents every word of Lewis Ganson's original text, printed in black, along with Slydini's additions and corrections, printed in blue, making this an invaluable and essential work even for those who own the original book. The Annotated Magic of Slydini is printed on the highest quality enamel paper. All 450 photos have been repositioned to correspond directly with the text and have been rescreened for optimum reproduction, including a half-dozen new photos not seen in the original. Hardbound with matching endsheets, foil-stamped cloth cover, striking full-color dust jacket, 312 pages. $59.95

Collector's Deluxe Limited Edition—Different binding from the regular edition, the Deluxe Edition includes a careful reproduction of a letter from Slydini used in the original limited edition. Sales strictly limited to just 100 copies. $99.95

SPECIAL OFFER—Get the regular edition of the book and two 18" slydini scarves for just $79.95

In A Class By Himself: The Legacy of Don Alan

This landmark work has finally been fully and dramatically captured in multi-faceted, multi-mediated form by Jon Racherbaumer, and L & L Publishing is proud to offer a vital masterwork written the way magic books should be written. Not only are all of Don Alan's signature tricks explained in meticulous detail, but his unique format, important sub-text, psychology and presentation—the life-blood of what set Don Alan apart from the rest—is fully explained. These are the aspects which made his entertaining routines the prevailing paradigm of 20th Century Close-up Magic. You will get an inside look at what made Don Alan the most talked about and most copied close-up entertainer of all time. And you will learn the whys and hows of his synergistic routine-making and the all-important underlying themes: the Circle of Fun, the uses of environmental and personal spaces, picking players, timing, control, momentum, interrogation strategy, and much more. 309 pages • 330 freeze-frame photos • 41 items, including Don Alan's professional Pretty Sneaky Act, which is comprised of 13action-packed, fully developed presentations • Introductions by Eugene Burger and Ron Bauer • A retrospective review of Don Alan's Magic Ranch television series • Two behind-the-scenes, candid, and thought-provoking interviews with Don • 16 scrapbook photos $49.95

Excerpts from recently received e-mail and snail mail

Hello Mr. Falanga. We have never met, but I am a big fan of yours. I really appreciate the wonderful job you are doing for the magic community. I have quite a collection of L&L videos and use them often. Sometimes a written description of an effect fails to excite me in the way actually seeing the effect performed does. I wish to congratulate you on your commitment to DVD. I am excited about seeing new titles in this format. I will be buying David Regal's set shortly. I have already spent my L&L allowance this week. — M.S., via e-mail

Thanks—just received it today—this is the way a magic DVD should be—superb—no more rewinding from performance to explanation. PERFECT—and David's tremendous!! — G.F., via e-mail

A few months ago I ordered Close Up & Personal by David Regal, and was I surprised—no pipe dreams, no one good effect & the rest trash—instead, as I read the book, it held my attention from start to finish, every item a real gem. Then you came out with the 3 tapes and I've never been so baffled & amazed. Here, I thought, is my kind of guy who really knows how to do magic. Not the impossible finger flinging stuff but something everyone can do. The performance part kept me in stitches and the explanations were so clear, a child could understand. Anyone who doesn't buy all three tapes is missing the chance of a lifetime. David's explanations were so lucid there is no doubt in my mind they will become classics. Long Live David Regal, the magician's magician. P.S. I've already watched all 3 tapes 4 times & plan on watching them 40 more. — B.H., Elkton, KY

The DVD set of David's work is unbelievable. From now on I'll always order DVDs. The set came out beautiful. — J.F., San Francisco, CA

Mr. Regal, I just wanted to let you know how brilliant I think your new tape set is. I've been involved with magic since I was 13, which is about ten years now, and your tapes were by far the best investment I've made. So often you see a reviewer, or more likely a publisher, say that one effect is "worth the price of the video! (or book)." But there are so many great tricks on your tapes that I can't single out one as being " worth the price of the tapes," all I can say is I feel I got a fantastic steal for 90 bucks. Oh, and they're funny too! Normally the only thing I find funny on a magic tape is the seriousness with which the performer regards himself, but you had me cracking up. Okay, so maybe praise doesn't mean so much when it's coming from some amateur magician you don't know. That's understandable. So I'll relate this —when I went into Tannen's to buy the tapes, I asked Tony Spina if he had them and this broad smile came across his face and he said, "Oh yeah, the best set of tapes I've ever seen." And he wasn't saying it to coerce me into buying the tapes, I had already made it clear that was my intention. Then about Self Evident he said, "Before I'd seen the tapes, one of my demonstrators showed me a trick, and it completely floored me. Normally you can backtrack and figure a trick out, but I had no idea. It's the best card trick I've ever seen." Now, that's pretty high (unsolicited) praise from someone who has seen a lot of magic. — A.C., via e-mail

Hurray! I can't tell you how gleeful I am after reading your spring 2001 issue. Reason? Jim Sisti wrote that L&L has decided to release all your new video projects in DVD format. Please also consider some of your old videos in DVD format, like Ammar's Easy to Master series, Maven's, McBride's, Elmsley's, Close's . . . Thank you. Thank you. — J.H., via e-mail
L&L response: Thank YOU! We do plan to release some of our earlier titles in DVD. Look for some of the Ammar and Daryl titles in the near future.

Thank you so much for the special issue featuring the remembrance of Don Alan. Don was my friend back in "the good ol' days." He was a genius magical idea man who knew how to truly entertain, and indeed, he was "in a class by himself!" — R.S., Scottsville, VA

Thank you for an opportunity to review your magic catalog. Whenever I purchase an L&L video from my local magic shop, I am always impressed with the quality of its content. At this point I have, in my collection of magical education, several L&L videos. I have never found one of which to be the least bit disappointing. Please keep up the good work in quality video productions, and please continue to combine both the tried and true methods along with fresh new innovations in your videos. Of all the books and videos I own, I would have to say the L&L videos are by far the best reference I have. — A.P., Puyallup, WA

Just to let you know the Jeff McBride Magic on Stage videos arrived safe and sound (and VERY promptly!) last week. They are just as great as I expected—many thanks for them and for the poster, which already has pride of place on my living room wall:) — L.G., Glasgow, Scotland

Just wanted to say: so many excellent items in the 2001 catalog . . . you sure know how to wreck a guy's budget;) And of course I enjoy the articles and photos too, as in previous catalogs. We have certainly been living in a golden age of magical publishing, and L&L is pretty much at the center of it. K.F., Gainesville, FL

Welcome to the 21st century—Louis Falanga, whose video sets are becoming must viewing even for us diehard book lovers, has yanked the whole video market into the 21st cenutry by putting out David Regal's new trilogy, The Magic of David Regal, on DVD. This is the only way that video teaching makes sense, especially for encyclopedic sets (which Louis hints he may re-release), so that you may instantly access segments of interest. As to the current set, I met David Regal last September, when he both charmed and fooled me badly, and I proudly hoard his Close-up & Personal. I cannot imagine anyone being disappointed with this material, and its format is the future of magical teaching. — Reprinted with permission from Steve Bryant's Little Egypt Magic

Just thought I'd mention a very NICE outcome to what had been a big disappointment. I ordered a prop from L&L Publishing, a group that has gotten lots of business from me in the past (both directly and through purchases at local shops). I have always been impressed with the quality of their stuff, and took a chance on this prop (I am purposely not mentioning what that prop was, as that is not the point of the story). Suffice it to say that the item was attributed to a very well known and respected performer. When the item arrived, it proved to be impractical, poorly made, and completely unreliable (almost never worked the first time). It would have to be relegated to the "junk" pile, and was not suitable to be used in any performance. I e-mailed L&L Publishing to tell them of my dismay. Their prompt reply via e-mail was: "First, we would like to apologize for the defect. If you would like a replacement, please let us know. Otherwise, we would be more than happy to take it back and give you a credit towards your next order or make an exchange for something else. Please let us know if this works for you." My hats off to these folks, for remembering the importance of customer service and customer satisfaction. Sometimes it is important to remember that it is not a matter of if something will go wrong—sometimes it does. It is a matter of how folks respond when it does. L & L rose to the occasion and not only remains on my "use these folks" list, but rose up a few notches. — J.E., on MagicTalk

JIM SISTI

All's Well That Ends Well

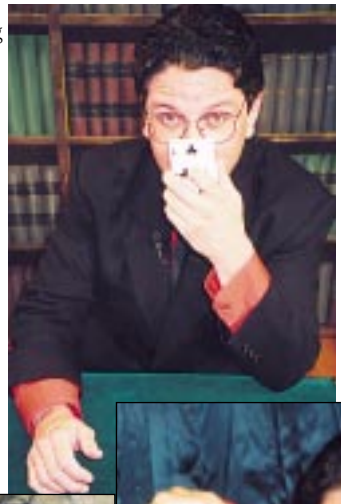
One of Bill Cosby's best-known routines involves his deconstruction of the game of golf. (I know...I know. Some of you actually think it's a sport...) Cosby observed that the golfer must not want the ball because he hits it away. He must then change his mind, though, because he walks after it and picks it up again. OK...he must want it again. Nope! He hits it away again. And, on and on it goes.

In the same way, card tricks can be stripped down to similarly silly bare essentials. A spectator is asked to select a card and remove it from the pack. Once it's identified, however, the magician then asks the spectator to put it back into the pack and lose it among the others. Then, the magician attempts to find the card that had just been separated from the pack moments before.

Of course, almost anything can seem superfluous when reduced to procedural details, but magic, particularly card magic, can be dreadful unless there is some kind of hook to engage the audience's attention and imagination. Now, it's been said that if you know a number of ways to control a selected card but only one way to reveal it, you really only know one card trick. Conversely, if you only know one control but have many ways at your disposal to reveal the selected card, you'd know a lot of different card tricks.

Chicago bar magic legend Matt Schulien was a good example of this axiom. People in Chicago still talk about Schulien's card tricks but a good percentage of these effects all started out the same way. A card was selected, remembered and returned. The card was then controlled and palmed off. However, it's what happened from this point on that people still remember and talk about though Schulien passed away more than thirty years ago. Their card would end up stuck to a wall, under a tablecloth, or even in their drink. And, though the technical aspects of these effects were almost identical, Schulien's audiences perceived them as completely different tricks because of how their selections were revealed.

This is why Daryl's new set of videos on card revelations is destined to be such a valuable resource. As J.G. Thompson's book The Living End set out to do, the five volumes of Daryl's Card Revelations are an encyclopedic compilation of ways to end your forays into the land of pick-a-card-any-card. What's more, there's something here for every taste and skill level.



For example, beginners will benefit from Daryl's exposition of a number of self-working and mathematical tricks that are beyond easy to do, yet will completely fool magicians not in the know. Intermediate card workers will be thrilled at Daryl's handlings of some of magic's classic routines, such as "Triumph," "Chicago Opener," and others. And, advanced card performers will love working on the flourishy revelations and Daryl's methodical instruction will have them cutting to four selections with one hand in no time.

What's truly amazing about this set of videos is the breadth and depth of the material. Daryl has sifted through the literature of magic and has come up with more than 140 ways to reveal a spectator's chosen card. There's material here from some of magic's most prolific and inventive performers, past and present, including Dai Vernon, Al Baker, Stuart Judah, Ted Annemann, Paul LePaul, Eddie Fechter, Ed Marlo, Larry Jennings, Harry Lorayne, Derek Dingle, and many, many others, including the aforementioned Mr. Schulien.

Now, while you probably won't perform every piece on these videos, just having watched and digested this material can only make you a better-prepared performer. No longer will you have to live in fear of the belligerent spectator who shuffles and then defies you to find his card. Now, you'll not only just find it, but you'll reveal it in a dramatic and memorable way. Whether you stab it with a knife, send it spinning end for end out of the pack or just push it straight through the table, the spectators will be keenly aware that they've seen more than just a garden-variety card trick.

If the mood strikes, perhaps you'll spell their name to find their card. You may even opt to take the scientific route and use their pulse or fingerprints to locate the card. Or, you just might want to save some time and just read their mind. The point is, it's all up to you and on these videos, Daryl not only teaches you great tricks developed by himself and others, but more importantly, supplies you with the necessary tools with which you can construct your own great tricks. Just as Eric Mead quoted Michael Weber as saying in a recent issue of Magic: "If you give a man a fish you feed him for a day. If you teach a man to fish, he thinks he's a mentalist."

Consider Daryl's Card Revelations as a post-graduate course in how to be entertaining with a pack of cards. As you no doubt know already, finding the card is hardly the point of any of this. Everyone has a crazy Uncle Charlie who can deal cards into three piles and come up with the selected card (usually after everyone has slipped into a coma). Finding the card in an entertaining way is the most difficult part. And, now, with the release of Daryl's Card Revelations, you'll have more than 140 ways at your fingertips (and these ideas are even more readily accessible if you purchase the DVD!) You are also fresh out of excuses for ever performing another boring card trick.

Happy endings! ✶

THE MAGIC OF DAVID REGAL

TRICKS! MORE TRICKS!

Enough With The Tricks Already!

"DAVID'S MAGIC IS NEW, FRESH, IMAGINATIVE, ENTERTAINING, EASY TO DO, AND— IT'LL FOOL THE HELL OUT OF YOU." —HARRY LORAYNE

David Regal, when he isn't writing for television shows like Rugrats and Everybody Loves Raymond, creates diabolical magic. And, on these three new videos. David performs and then teaches killer effects from his Magic Castle act as well as the bestselling books Close-Up & Personal, Star Quality and the forthcoming Constant Fooling.

The 36 close-up items taught on these three tapes are capable of fooling well-posted magicians, yet are exceedingly entertaining to laypeople. What's more, because of David's singular and sometimes unusual methodology, almost all of the effects are surprisingly easy to perform. First, you'll be entertained and fooled along with the studio audience and then delighted as David takes you behind the scenes and shows you the extremely clever workings of his magic.

$29.95 each, 3-vol set, $84.95 American VHS, PAL (overseas customers please specify) or DVD*

VOLUME 1 2 hr 39 min

The Déjà Vu Deck
Without warning of any type, a freely-named card appeared under the hand of an unsuspecting civilian. "It was horrible," said Doris Patitsky, of 505 N. Ambrose Lane. Witnesses to the appearance claim ignorance.

Everywhere
Yesterday afternoon, a selected card ran rampant, taking over the identities of innocent cards throughout a deck then jumping into a nearby pocket. "It just kept coming and coming…" wept Sally Trusdale, the first on the scene.

Cheating
A lesson in skull-duggery took many twists, becoming wholesale assault on the citizens' senses. Cards flipped and changed more times than some would imagine necessary, yet the perpetrator continued his barrage, claiming it was "entertainment."

Clearly Impossible
Authorities were confounded today, as valuable coins vanished from within the confines of a clear glass when the glass was inverted. Inspector Tibbet insists the coins did not, in fact, vanish, but instead pene-trated a solid table to be caught below, one at a time. Needless to say, this has raised considerable debate.

Pasteboard Massacre
The bodies of dozens of once whole playing cards were found bisected in a manner that suggests knowledge of surgical instruments. A surviving playing card, the signed selection, was unavailable for comment.

There & Back
Marie Threadbottom has lodged a complaint in reference to her wedding band, which she insists "mysteriously transported itself" from one locale to another while under her closest scrutiny. The ring, which she identified both before and after the event, was returned unharmed, so charges were dropped.

Self-Evident
A lone odd-backed card in a deck was discovered by a civilian using powers he claims he did not know he possessed. "I just put one aside…I did the dealing…I turned it over," was all he was able to mumble from his semi-comatose state.

Perchance to Dream
A portion of the works of William Shakespeare was reported stolen to-day. The suspect insists he simply "thought of a word," and it vanished from Hamlet's soliloquy.

The Half Deal
All of the Las Vegas casinos were forced to shut down today, as a form of cheating known as "The Half Deal" rendered all card wagering useless. According to sources, those in the know are able to deal the ink off a card, and place it back at will.

Sending It Through
Scientists report a dimensional vortex discovered within a deck of cards. According to Dr. Edwin Fecund, "A playing card inserted sideways at a precise predetermined angle goes all wacky."

All Strung Out
The world's greatest coincidence occurred yesterday afternoon, as a team of monkeys that had been stringing different colored beads along different colored strings for ten years, finally matched an ancient prediction made by Nostradamus.

Deep Guilt Acres
A very lucky gambler dead cut to four aces Sunday morning, turning them over himself. Though this was witnessed by David Regal, Angelo Carbone has testified to similar results in England. Mark Jenest has seen even more incredible results at his casino, some years ago.

VOLUME 2 2 hr 13 min

All's Fair
A playing card was created today by two unsuspecting accomplices in the fairest possible manner—yet its identity matched a hoard of duplicates that tumbled from a nearby pocket. Lt. Swagger suspects third party involvement.

The Origami Bill
The world rejoiced as paper currency suddenly increased in value yesterday. While many desired to duplicate the feat, there were no tips or rules of thumb forthcoming.

Streamlined Assembly
Four apartment renovators, spread throughout the floors of a house, inexplicably appeared on the roof, much to the surprise of onlookers. "I think it was the free beer," said a witness to the workers' amazing flight.

For Marlo
A selected playing card quietly left the company of four lowly twos when a quartet of queens made themselves available, even though the parcels of playing cards never touched. Just how the selection negotiated this passage is a matter customs agents are still considering.

Triple Vision
A grandmother's gift became cause for alarm, as three missing cards turned out to match three cards selected by the spectators. Several well-situated witnesses insist the choices were fair, the deck was examined, and there were "no suspicious moves."

Cups & Balls & Cups & Balls
What first appeared to be another exercise of an ancient ruse, took on a different tone as a credible story slowly revealed itself. All assembled were caught in a web of deceit, thwarted by an unexpected wrinkle.

Illegal Collections
The International Convention of Card-Palmers was interrupted late last night by a member of the fraternity who ada-mantly refused to palm. "We hate him," whispered a dedicated palmer, who saw three free selections move through space without benefit of the typical locomotive methodology.

The Flying Hole
Physicists from three countries today re-ported that a hole has been successfully moved from one point to another. All materials were left for the scientific community to examine.

Ten Second Poker
The Guiness Book of World Records has officially listed a delighted spectator as master of the "Ten Second Deal." The spectator shuffled a deck of cards, then, in only ten seconds, dealt himself a royal straight flush. "I'm as amazed as the rest of them!" said the participant, wiping his brow.

Red-Handed
A new patent on the lie detector was issued today, one that features a surprising and convincing proof of guilt for all who have formerly benefited from the Stein-meyer invention.

The Joker Works Overtime
A criminal joker has located fellow conspirators and perpetrated several changes of disguise, much to the dismay of authorities. "How can one little fellow do so much with so little?" puzzled Ellery Cad-mar, the Chief of Forensics.

Flight of Fancy
"I touched it…and it went away," was all Barbara Tick could mumble as she was dragged into a van by four hospital interns. According to a dazed witness, a freely selected card vanished from one deck, only to land in another, even though "the guy didn't do nothing."

VOLUME 3 1 hr 47 min

Primate
Two kings, under spectator watch, managed to catch a felon who was lost in the deck the moment a spectator released them. Radar clocked the kings' total time required to apprehend at .5 seconds.

Leap of Faith
Five cards gathered today for the most amazing metaphysical display yet recorded, as a selection visibly transported from one spot to another in full view of a grand jury.

Straight-forward Collections
Four ace detectives today refused to divulge the identities of three suspects, and instead captured them, much to the satisfaction of the assembled populous.

Clean Cut
Four like playing cards were seen upon four packets early this morning. Those with information regarding their gathering are asked to contact the police.

Bottoms-Up Aces
POLICE WARNING: Four like cards have again gathered without proper permits. On this occasion, they avoided all normal routes.

Down-Under Production
Sunday morning, a display of ace solidarity turned into an unwarranted assembly that quickly disturbed the pubic. A shaken onlooker said, "No one saw it coming."

Commercial Travel
A crowd watched in horror as an explanation of card table chicanery turned into a series of bizarre events that threatened to go out of control. A traveler to these parts was heard to say, "I'm open to many things—but not this."

The World's First Card Trick
A man was arrested last night for forcing a group of spectators to shuffle a deck of cards repeatedly against their will. The fact that the man held a prediction did not prevent Judge Wilson Glimmer from declaring that "no criminal has ever been so bold."

Dave's Move-a-Card
Last evening, an individual displayed prodigious mind power by memorizing the order of an entire deck of cards, and locating a selection. "He's full of crap," quipped Harry Lorayne, memory expert, "It's just a * trick."

Logical Assembly
PUBLIC NOTICE: There will be a get-together of the four aces, out in the open, for all to see. WHERE: On the table. WHEN: You missed it already.

Out of This Borough
The editors of this paper wish to make note of yet another translation of Paul Curry's classic novel "Out of This World." Of interest is the fact that the book's structure has not been changed in any way, yet for reasons un-clear, the final outcome is different.

Four the Hard Way
It is with sadness we report that an unidentified man collapsed after performing undue exertions with a deck of cards, as he located four selections. Doctors on the scene say he will never perform again. Those in the vicinity applauded.

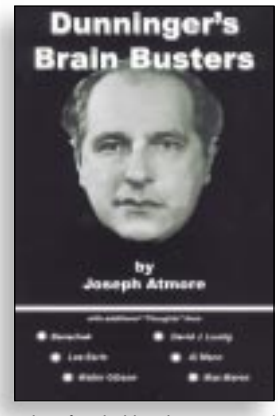
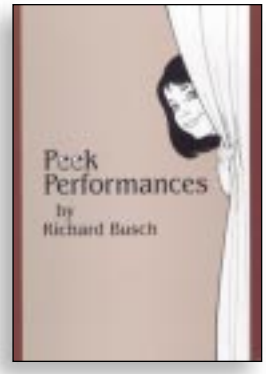
ZONE ZERO FROM JERRY ANDRUS. One of Jerry's fantastic signature effects. The magician displays an 11" x 17" board with a hole near the center. After showing both hands empty, he reaches into the hole and pulls out a solid 2 1/2 " golden ball. The ball is then placed back through the hole, into Zone Zero, where it completely vanishes! The ball is then again produced by reaching inside and then promptly vanishes once again! Both hands are clearly shown at all times! Comes complete with the Zone Zero board, 2 1/2" rubber ball, written instructions plus an instructional video in which Jerry clearly teaches his handling and includes bonus footage of Jerry's 1960-61 Table Act and his Nutty Nut and Bolt Illusion. $39.95 (instructional video in American VHS format only)



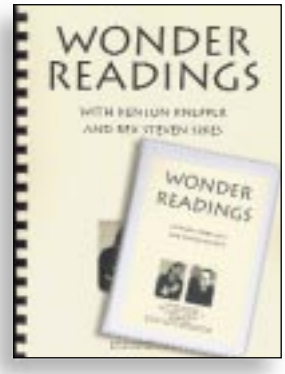
DUNNINGER'S BRAIN BUSTERS by Joseph Atmore. For most of the 20th century, the Amazing Dunninger defined the term mentalism for the American public. Much of the success of his pioneering radio and television performances was based on his use of original routines he called "Brain Busters." Each week audiences eagerly tuned in to see whether Dunninger would be stumped by one of these impossible challenges. Joseph Atmore has spent years collecting these Brain Busters and, with the help of some of modern mentalism's brightest minds, has analyzed them to understand the often bold and sometimes deceptively simple methods underlying these miracles. This collection will be invaluable to all students of showmanship and mentalism. Includes thoughts from Banachek, Lee Earle, Walter Gibson, David J. Lustig, Al Mann and Max Maven. Hard cover, 110 pages. $35.00

MEIR YEDID'S TOTAL DESTINY. Based on the work of Walter Gibson, Maurice Kraitchik, Mel Stover and Phil Goldstein. Holding a plastic board with a grid full of numbers, a spectator names any of the numbers. It is circled and some of the numbers around it are erased. A second and third spectator each names a number and it too is circled and the numbers around it are erased. One number is left and that becomes your free selection. All four selected numbers are added up and the total matches a previously introduced prediction. Can be repeated with an unlimited number of totals. The prediction can be mailed to your audience weeks in advance. Can be customized to match just about any total. Self working, learned in minutes, and suitable for close-up, stand-up and stage. Comes complete with a 16-page illustrated booklet, the Total Destiny board and a dry erase marker. Also includes Phil Goldstein's Rainbow Matrix and Force Majeur. $45.00



PEEK PERFORMANCES BY RICHARD BUSCH. The ultimate treatise on securing secret information: center tears, book tests, card peeks, billets and psychological forces, even an impromptu "Mother of All Book Tests." The most creative and original look at billets and peeks in years! Hard cover, 209 pages. $65.00

HERB ZARROW ON THE ZARROW SHUFFLE. The Zarrow Shuffle is the ultimate false riffle shuffle. Now Herb Zarrow himself explains the details and secret techniques that make the Zarrow Shuffle indetectable. No matter how many riffle shuffles you give the deck, you maintain complete control of all the cards. The Zarrow Shuffle is the most deceptive false shuffle ever created and one of the few sleights that was instantly adopted not only by top card workers but also by professional card sharpers. This is the first time that Herb Zarrow, the inventor of the shuffle, has revealed these handlings, variations and presentations using the shuffle. Most of the material on this tape has never been available before, including many fine points and applications that have been held back for more than 40 years. $29.95 (American VHS or PAL, overseas customers please specify)



WONDER READINGS WITH KENTON KNEPPER AND REX STEVEN SIKES. A Readings System for Mentalists and Magicians.
World renowned magician and mentalist Kenton Knepper collaborated with celebrity consultant and NLP (Neuro Linguistic Programming) Vice President and IDEA Seminars Trainer Rex Steven Sikes to create a brand new cold reading system for magicians and mentalists like nothing you have seen before. This is not "the same old thing," there are no stock lines and no pre-show work is required. The system includes four audio tapes which contain nearly five hours of audio instruction and a full size book over 100 pages in length. Here is just a small sampling:
• A disclaimer that isn't a disclaimer—The illusion is created by telling the truth!
• Tell a person instantly how they look at the world, how they work, why they do things, and much more—without knowing a single thing about them!
• Learn the illusions behind "personality tests" and create your own.
• Know if a person wants "relationships, travel, work or money" by a few key words.
• Learn how to do "fail safe" readings—where you simply cannot be wrong!
• Everything from "psychic" to "psychological" readings, and in between!
• Learn how Kenton and Rex do readings on stage, close-up, in magic and mentalism, and in everyday life. Learn how easy it is to do readings from five seconds to over one hour in length without memorized lines. Discover how to do readings with anything, anywhere—even on the phone!
• Discover simple ways to get instant rapport, and truly get inside their minds.
• If you don't know an answer, find out how to get the client to give you one!
Much, much more! $250.00

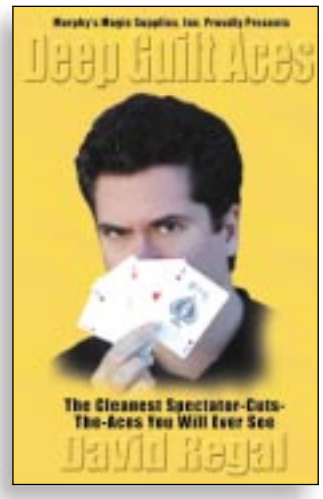
3 DYNAMITE EFFECTS AS PERFORMED AND EXPLAINED ON L & L PUBLISHING'S RECENTLY RELEASED DAVID REGAL VIDEOS

DAVID REGAL'S DEJA VU DECK. The spectator simply names any card that they like. The magician removes a deck of cards, and claims he will make the named selection vanish from the deck. When the deck is spread, all of the cards are seen to be missing the faces. Offering to try to make their card come back, the magician clearly shows a blank-faced card and places it under a spectator's hand. When they lift their hand and turn over the card, they are amazed to see it is their named selection! The magic happens in the spectator's hand. Instantly resets and no table is required. Perfect for walk-around. $19.95



DAVID REGAL'S DEEP GUILT ACES. One of the cleanest versions of spectator-cuts-the Aces you will ever see! A deck of cards is shown and a spectator freely cuts the deck into four piles. The other cards are shown, so the spectator can see that they could have easily cut to any random cards. When the spectator turns over the four cards they cut to, they discover the four Aces! No forcing, switches or difficult moves. The spectator freely cuts the cards. $15.00

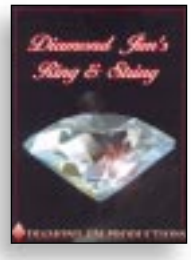
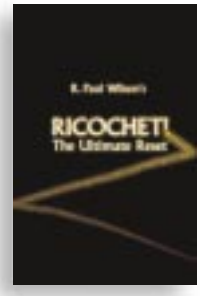
(Previously released by Videonics as the Early Ammar series)

PINNED CARD DELUXE BY DAMIEN VAPPEREAU AND JEAN-MARK SINCLAIRE. A spectator shuffles a deck of cards, freely selects one and signs it on the face. Immediately, the signed card appears attached to you tie with a golden safety pin! $29.95

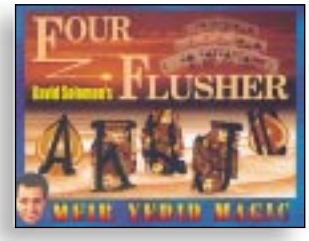
DIAMOND JIM TYLER'S HOW SWEET IT IS. Imagine borrowing an initialed coin only to have it vanish at your fingertips, then having the same coin appear inside a sealed sugar packet which has been in front of the audience the entire time! $15.00



DIAMOND JIM'S RING AND STRING ROUTINE. A borrowed ring penetrates a string, vanishes from sight and reappears at will for the magician! This is Diamond Jim's pet routine which has evolved since 1986 and helped him win the award for Best Close-Up Magic at the last T.A.O.M. convention. $15.00



R. PAUL WILSON'S RICOCHET. Prepare to be blown away! Four court cards and four spot cards are removed from the deck. The performer isolates the court cards face down in front of the audience. The four spot cards are cleanly shown one at a time before they transform into the four court cards! Suddenly, just when they think it's all over, the cards deliver a remarkable double whammy, leaving the audience gasping for breath and shaking their heads in disbelief. This visual knockout will fast become one of your favorite effects. Extremely visual and easy to do. No false counts or difficult sleights. Includes complete, illustrated instructions and custom made gaffs on Bicycle stock. $15.00

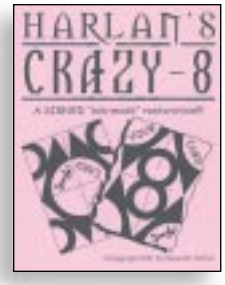


DAVID SOLOMON'S FOUR FLUSHER. The magician displays a poor poker hand, one a cheater might try to pawn off as a flush. Describing the methods of a professional card shark, and with zero moves, the poker hand turns into Four-of-a-Kind with Aces! Continuing the explanation of cheaters' secret moves, the hand becomes a Royal Flush in Spades! Only five cards are used and they are tabled at the end, displaying both faces and backs! Comes complete with photo-illustrated instructions and a very special set of blue-backed poker-size Bicycle cards. $15.00

THE AMAZING SHRINKING DECK FROM KENNEDY MAGIC. The magician brings out a deck of cards and removes the cards from the case. All of a sudden the box shrinks . . . then the entire deck shrinks! The magician puts one of the miniature cards aside, scoops up the deck, gives it a shake and it instantly grows back to poker size! He then causes the one small card put aside earlier to also grow back to normal size! $29.95

STEVE BEDWELL'S REBOXED. The performer removes a deck of cards from their case. Then, while holding the lid of the case shut, he proceeds to push the entire deck visibly through the back panel inside the case! Both the case and the deck are examinable and the performer is left clean! $19.95

DAN HARLAN'S CRAZY 8. A signed piece of paper is torn into four pieces, rearranged with the torn edges on the outside, corners on the inside (mis-made), then it is restored back to one piece with the torn edges still outside . . . and it is still signed! Your spectator may keep it as a souvenir! $10.00



EL DUCO'S AUTO-MATCH-IC. At anytime during his performance, the magician removes a box of matches and takes out one match. he then tries, unsuccessfully, to light the match by striking it against the side of the box several times. Deciding to take a different approach, he holds the match between his fingers, rubs the box against his elbow and the match lights up! $25.00

TANNEN'S CAR BUGGY TRICK. The magician is aided by a small toy car which never fails to stop at a spectator's selected card! This handcrafted, solid walnut car measures 2" x 3" and includes "headlights" and a "spare tire" on the back. Most importantly, however, the rubber tires are made to stop on a dime and will not slip at all, even when used on a glass surface. Popularized a few years ago by Juan Tamariz on a national television special, this effect is still a winner! $30.00

SENSATIONAL ACTS OF MYSTERY MEN FROM STEVENS' GREATER MAGIC VIDEO LIBRARY TEACH-IN SERIES. Fabulous and legendary acts that have stood the test of time—seven different effects by seven magical performers. Charlie Miller, Paul Daniels, Marvyn & Carol Roy, Hans Moretti, Salvano, Shimada and Jay Marshall. $19.95 (American VHS only)

Wait no longer—L&L reprints back in stock:

J.C. WAGNER'S 7 SECRETS. Includes—Torn and Restored Card: You openly tear a card into four pieces and give one of the pieces to a spectator. The other three pieces are shown to be totally separate from one another. The three pieces are now magically restored, and the piece the spectator holds matches perfectly. Matrix Torn and Restored Card: This one blows them right out of their seats! The climax is totally unexpected. Spectral Silk: A card is selected and lost in the deck. The deck is spread out on top of a handkerchief, and the corners of the handkerchief are drawn up to cover the deck. Suddenly, the handkerchief moves as if something were alive inside it! Unbelievably, the selection now rises up and stands on one end to reveal itself from within the folds of the handkerchief. Other items include J.C.'s Color-Changing Deck Routine, Mentally By Two, Ace-Two-Three-Four, and Pop-Out Revelation. Plus: A special bonus coin section featuring The Charisma Change, Silver & Copper transposition, and the Wagner Clink Pass. Softbound, 72 pages. Only $12.50

Patrick Page's Three Card Trick
COMPLETE WITH ALL PROPS!
THE PERFECT CLOSE-UP CARD ROUTINE SUITABLE FOR GAMBLING DEMONSTRATIONS & WALK-AROUND PERFORMERS

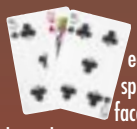
Finally...The Real Work On Patrick Page's Legendary Three Card Trick - On Video! just $19.95 - props included!

You'll never believe you can squeeze this much magic out of three cards, yet Patrick Page has been befuddling magicians and laypeople alike with this nine-phase routine for decades. It's the Kitson Miracle as developed by Pat Page with several startling visual effects that are unlike any other Three Card Monte effects. Over 10,000 already sold!

Here's what the audience sees: Three cards are displayed in a fan—two black spot cards with a red Queen in the center.* The fan is turned over fairly and the spectator is asked to select the Queen. However, their selection turns out to be one of the spot cards. This sequence is repeated with the same results.

The performer then offers to explain why the spectator fails each time to select the Queen and fans the cards out once again. The fan is turned face down and immediately righted—the Queen has vanished! The cards are squared and fanned once again, only to show that the Queen has returned. However, upon turning the fan face down and then face up, the Queen has totally disappeared again!



The performer again squares the cards and fans them to show that the Queen is back, right in the center position where she started. The cards are turned face down and the performer removes the center card, only to show that it has changed into one of the spot cards. This card is returned face up to the face-down fan, which is then turned over to show that the middle card is double-faced—it has a Queen on the other side. So, that's how it works! But, not so fast! The "double-faced" card is removed only to show that it has a normal back design. The Queen has once again vanished without a trace.

The performer fans the cards once more, showing the Queen has returned and is once again in the center. However, with just a slight movement, the Queen visibly changes into a spot card. The cards are then turned face down and mixed. The spectator is entreated to try and find the Queen. However, each selected card is turned over fairly to show that all three are spot cards with no trace of the Queen.

For the last time, the cards are squared and spread, showing the elusive Queen has returned to the center. The fan is turned face down and then face up—the Queen is gone once and for all. The performer deals the three spot cards onto the table one at a time to end.

This video was produced and originally released by: VIC PINTO The TRIK-A-TAPE Company

No extra cards…nothing to add…nothing to take away. This is the card trick that Patrick Page carries with him all the time, and you will, too...once you learn its diabolical secret. So, get your hands on the very special cards we've included, warm up your VCR, and get ready to carry on the legend of the Three Card Trick! This video makes it easy! (AMERICAN VHS ONLY)
